
Eastern Nevada Landscape Coalition presents

Climate Change in the Great Basin

June 14, 2017 Bristlecone Convention Center Ely, Nevada

7:30 a.m.	Registration Opens
8:30-8:45	Welcome and Opening Remarks	ENLC Board Member
8:45-9:30	Packrat Middens and Climate Change: 35,000 years of vegetation tradeoffs	Dr. Robin Tausch, Emeritus Rocky Mountain Research Lab
9:30-10:00	A Great Basin Ecological Observatory for Studying Climate-Tree Growth Relationships	Dr. Franco Biondi UNR
10:00-10:30	BREAK
10:30-11:00	Landscape-level Considerations of Climate Change in Public Land Management	Brian Amme BLM, Nevada State Office
11:00-11:30	Plant Responses to Invasion and Climate Change: Only the small survive	Dr. Beth Ledger UNR
11:30-1:00	LUNCH
1:00-1:30	The Great Basin Landscape Conservation Cooperative, an Example of Effective Collaboration	Rick Kearney Great Basin LLC
1:30-2:00	Creosote and Blackbrush Response to Shifting Climatic Envelopes and New Disturbance Regimes	Dominic Gentilcore UNLV
2:00-2:30	Securing Native Seed and Implementation of the National Seed Strategy in the Great Basin	Fred Edwards BLM
2:30-3:00	BREAK
3:00-3:30	Western Regional Climate Center Tools for Tracking and Observing Climate Change and Variability in the Great Basin	Dr. Daniel McEvoy Desert Research Institute
3:30-4:00	Examining Relationships Among Plants, Pikas, and Climate Change in the Great Basin	Jennifer Wilkening USFWS
4:00-4:15	Wrap-up	Betsy Macfarlan ENLC

Thanks to our sponsors!

First National Bank of Ely
Bristlecone Motel
O'Flaherty Plumbing & Heating
The Prospector Hotel
Sherburne Macfarlan

EASTERN NEVADA
Landscape Coalition